

Stephen Tanzer's
International Wine Cellar

89(+?) | 2005 Gustave Lorentz Riesling Altenberg de Bergheim

Pale, bright yellow. Bracing aromas of citrus pith, minerals, mint and white pepper. Juicy, penetrating and light on its feet; a step up from the Kanzlerberg in its fruit intensity. Very pure, vibrant wine with good stony focus on the back. But this, too, is quite austere today and in need of patience.