

January 2007

---

91 | Gustave Lorentz 2002 Altenberg de Bergheim Grand Cru Pinot Gris (Alsace).

Soft, full, rich and spicy, this is an intense wine, expressing the essence of Pinot Gris. It's ripe, off-dry, but with a core of dry toast and almond flavors which go with the pear and nutmeg tastes. This is still a young wine – Lorentz advises 10-15 years aging: more realistic would be another 3-4. — R.V. \(2/1/2007\)